

Auburn Old Town Gallery
218 Washington Street, Auburn, California 95603
General Membership Meeting
February 22, 2021
7:00 PM

This was an informational Zoom meeting and discussion about the artists who had applied for jurying into the gallery. The artwork was available to view at the gallery and images of the artwork was sent to the membership via email. These artists included:

Jason Fleak - charcuterie boards

Gia McNutt - Mixed media abstracts and mixed media landscapes

Mary Lou Anderson - fused glass jewelry and fused glass art pieces

Don Antram - Mixed media paintings

Amy Conley - ceramics

Susan Stoll - acrylic paintings

Artists wanting to jury more than one type of art will have each type of art listed separately on the ballot. Susan Stoll will be sending out ballots via Survey Monkey by February 23rd.

Accepted artists must receive at least 66% approval of the total members who vote. Ardith Gray, our Membership Chair, welcomes suggestions about how she might improve the jurying and membership process.

Galleria Display: There was discussion about the gallery display at the Galleria in Roseville. Art tags have fallen off the displays and Darlene Riel will see about replacing them. It is difficult getting access to the store containing the display. This display will be in place until April 8, and artists will need to pick up their art and display materials on that day. Customers interested in purchasing art in the display will be relayed from Placer Arts Council to Darlene Riel, who will coordinate the sale and pick up of art through the gallery.

Thefts: There have been several recent thefts in the gallery. Thefts include a leather purse (Ardith), a cane (Todd), and a wood incense box (Jane). This seems to be an increasing problem in our community. Shoshi will send out an email to the membership asking artists to be vigilant and watchful.

Meeting closed at 8:15 pm.
